THE CITIZENS' TICKET AND THE PLATFORM

We, the undersigned candidates of the "citizens" ticket, being duly nominated, without regard to political affiliation, hereby announce the following declaration of principles:

1. We stand for good government of our city affairs. (This does not mean the exclusion of legitimate pool halls, cigars stores and other card rooms, or any other places of innocent amusement.)

2. We believe that the city Fire Department should have proper housing and moral and financial encouragement.

3. We realize the need of an extension of the water system of the city and favor the same as fast as the revenues will permit.

4. We take pride in the present high standard of the public school system of North Platte and will use our best endeavors to maintain the same. We commend the recent move in making it a community center.

5. As taxpayers and property owners we are interested in the expenditure of city funds and we pledge ourselves to the economical use of all revenues for the conduction, development, expansion and protection of every part of North Platte.
